

Banner by Ellucian

Release Interdependency Matrix

Updated March 5, 2020

This document outlines the release interdependencies for the following Banner by Ellucian products. Before you install or upgrade a product, use this document to determine which other products you must install first. Each time a Banner by Ellucian product is released, these tables are updated to reflect the interdependencies for the new release.

NOTE: All release information for any release posted prior to January 1, 2015 has been moved to the Banner Release Interdependencies - Archived document.

NOTE: This document defines the minimum release interdependencies for Banner by Ellucian products. All subsequent releases, after the minimum release, are compatible as well.

As you use the information in this document, it is important to note the following:

- All entries refer to installation of stage upgrade releases.
- The release level listed in cells that reference the relationship of a product to itself indicates the prior release of that product that must be installed. For example, General release 8.1 can only be installed in an environment in which General 8.0 was already installed
- "N/A" Indicates that there is no dependency between the two corresponding products
